The University Senate Nominations and Elections Committee held two elections during the 2014-2015 academic year. The whole process including nomination via willingness to serve forms and elections was conducted online.

As of September 2014, there were 17 senate committee regular vacancies. In addition to regular vacancies, the committee ran nominations and elections for 10 ad-hoc committees, the total of 47 seats. Three ballots were generated for this election: a preliminary, a final, and a run-off.

40 vacancies were filled via election. 7 vacancies remained after the election.

As of January 2015, there were 63 senate committee vacancies. In total, three ballots were generated for this election: a preliminary, a final, and a run-off.

44 seats were filled via election. 19 seats remain unfilled as of April 2014.

Many thanks to Richard Corzo and Thomas Badura, et al. in IT&I.

Respectfully submitted,

Galina Bakhtiarova, Chair
