Probation & Suspension

Excellence in performance is expected of students engaged in graduate study. The student who is unable to maintain a satisfactory grade point average may be asked to withdraw from graduate study.

Any graduate student whose cumulative graduate grade point average falls below 3.0 or “B” is automatically placed on academic probation (Exception: M.B.A. students; see policy below). If, at the end of the following semester of enrollment, the student’s cumulative grade point average increases but remains below 3.0, the student may be continued on terminal academic probation for a maximum of one additional semester. At the end of that semester, the student must have a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, or be dismissed from the division by the academic dean of the student’s academic discipline for unsatisfactory academic performance. Semesters include fall, spring and summer.

Any M.B.A. student whose grade point average falls below 3.0 or “B” will be notified at the end of the semester that they are on probation. If, after completing eight courses or 24 semester hours, a student’s grade point average remains below 3.0 or “B,” he/she will be dismissed from the M.B.A. program. If at any time after completing 24 semester hours, a student’s grade point average falls below 3.0 or “B” for two consecutive semesters, he/she will be dismissed from the M.B.A. program.
